

Lessons Learned About God, Life, and Man

5. Bosses should care about their employees; they should not mistreat them in any way because Jesus is their boss too and He doesn't play favorites, 6:9.
6. Christians should be the best employees and the best bosses; this should be automatic for them, 6:5-18.
7. Since we have access to the Lord's power, which is beyond anything we can imagine, nothing in this world should be able to defeat us. And even if we fail, we should be able to get back up again; all we need to do is stand in that power, 6:10.
8. One of the main reasons why this life is so difficult is because Satan and his minions are constantly attacking us, 6:11-12.
9. The real enemy behind our sins and the sins of others is Satan and his minions, 6:11-12.
10. If you're wearing God's armor, the various facets of Jesus: truth, righteousness, the Gospel that brings peace, faith, salvation, the Word of God, and constant communication with God by means of His Spirit, then Satan's schemes will fail and his fiery attacks will bounce off, 6:10-18.
11. What you believe will protect you or not; it will either stop Satan's attacks or let them in, 6:16.
12. Even the most spiritually mature among us needs God's guidance, courage, and help, 6:19-20.
13. Whatever God's given you to do in this life, you must be all in, 6:20.
14. We should care deeply about each other's lives; we should know what's going on with each other and be in constant prayer for one another, 6:18-24.
15. God's desire for our lives is His peace, love and grace, 6:23-24.
